

Housing and Residential Life

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY
LONG BEACH

August 1, 2023

Our records indicate that you were interested in adding the Flex Option to your meal plan. Since the time you signed up for it, some slight changes have been made in how the option will be processed.

Instead of $150 per semester being added to your card, the full $300 will be added prior to the start of Fall move in. A charge of $300 will be added to your housing account, with a due date of September 1, 2023. The $300 fund will be deposited to your Flex/Beach Bucks account the week of August 14th and accessible using your Campus ID.

Please note that the payment must be made in full by the due date mentioned above. Should the payment not be made in full or at all, the funds will be removed from your ID Card, and the charge reversed. If any portion of the Flex funds are used with no payment received, ID Card Services will charge students for the funds used.

If you no longer wish to have the Flex Option to your account, please email housing@csulb.edu with your Full name, Campus ID, and request to remove Flex Option. Email subject should read "Remove Flex Plan option". Our office will need to receive this request no later than August 9th.
