Subject: CSULB Housing: La Playa Update

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY

LONG BEACH

Student Housing

Dear

I'm writing today with another update on La Playa, your future home on campus.

As I shared in my previous message, our campus housing staff and construction crews are working very hard to prepare for your arrival.

Furniture is now being moved into the building, testing of our various safety systems is underway, cooling and heating systems are being calibrated, and dozens of other projects are nearing the final stages. On Monday, we'll begin final cleaning and parking lot preparations.

A few finishing touches will likely remain when you arrive as our first residents. We appreciate your understanding during the initial weeks of the semester.

Please continue to plan on a move-in date of Sunday, August 23 - one day before classes begin.

We will keep sharing updates and will notify you promptly of any important developments and next steps. Please review our email messages carefully.

We look forward to welcoming you to La Playa!

Sincerely,

Eric Rollerson

Executive Director of Student Housing
